IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

JUNE 24, 1890.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. DAVIS, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 7881.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill granting a pension to Mrs. Martha E. Grant, have examined the same, and report:

The report submitted by the House committee in this case is adopted as the report of your committee, and the passage of the bill recommended.

HOUSE REPORT.

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 7881) granting a pension to Mrs. Martha E. Grant, have considered the same, and report as follows:

The claimant's late husband, Augustine L. Grant, was a private in Capt. John A. Urquhart's company, Georgia Volunteers, Creek Indian war, and served from June 1, 1836, to September 2, 1836.

The claimant, who lives at Decatur, De Kalb County, Ga., is shown by the sworn statements of George H. Hammond, J. N. Wilson, J. W. Warren, Dr. E. J. Roach, and William W. Grant to be very old, in feeble health, and with no property or income from which to derive a support. She is mainly dependent upon her children for maintenance, but her sons have large families of their own to care for and their property and incomes are small.

The passage of the bill is respectfully recommended.
